

Saturday 14th February 2009

Tunbridge Wells V 1 Blackheath 2

Wells had a chance to move into third place, but were thwarted by a well-organised Blackheath team. Throughout the game Wells keeper Lucy Risebrow was kept on her toes, repeatedly keeping Blackheath at bay. Only once during the first half was she beaten, when the defence failed to clear after her save.

In the second half, the lead might have been increased, but instead Harriet Alexander provided a moment of magic. Theresa McClennan hammered a cross field ball which was partially stopped by the Blackheath defence. Alexander raced forward, intercepted the ball, carried it 25 metres into the goal and placed it past the goalie to the delight of the spectators.

At this point the game might have gone either way, but Blackheath sneaked the winner in the last 10 minutes.